Chapter Spotlight: Phoebus #146 in Tucson, Arizona

Our newest chapter within District 20 is Phoebus #146 in Tucson, Arizona. Although only going on 2.5 years since reactivating, these ladies have been busy not only growing their membership, but within their community. The Sisters of Phoebus have formed a close bond with Eagle Wings of Grace. This is a faith based non profit organization that strives to empower women in their community. They have been helping women who have experienced devastation transition from poverty to long-term economic independence, restoring dignity and hope since 2007.

The Sisters also participate in the annual Tucson Meet Yourself. This is an annual, free folklife festival that celebrates the diverse traditional arts of Southern Arizona and the Arizona-Sonora border region. It features food vendors, performers, and cultural activities, highlighting the region's ethnic and folk communities. They prepare various Greek foods and desserts for this four day event.

Lastly, they often doing joint events with their AHEPA, such Christmas events and hockey and baseball games. This upcoming year, the Sisters of Phoebus, alongside the Tucson AHEPA Chapter, will be hosting District Convention 2026.
