

DOP Academy

The DOP Academy is back for its third year! The purpose of the Online Academy is to empower our Sisters through educational opportunities and enhance their experience as members of the Daughters of Penelope. The DOP Academy is for all members of the Daughters of Penelope and it will take place via Zoom. There will be a five Sessions by time zone and the modules will be about an 90 minutes each. To attend the DOP Academy, you must register, and space is limited. Upon completion of a session participants will receive a digital certificate. Please register according to your time zone so the Grand Lodge can accommodate everyone.

District Governors Leadership Conference

Over September 19-22, 2025 weekend, the AHEPA Family met in Washington DC for their annual District Governor's Leadership Conference to kick off the year. This weekend allows for DGs to get to know the Grand Lodge, their liaison, learn about the various Projects, and various educational topics, which included a presentation on self care and navigating success through wellness. Thank you to the DOP Foundation for sponsoring this presentation.

Lastly, the Spirit of Penelope Award was given to Sisters Katherine Kallinis Berman and Sophie Kallinis LaMontagne of Georgetown Cupcakes. They were honored for their contributions to dignity, perseverance, creativity, and their roles as empowering leaders for women.
